

RONNIE L. GROCE : Case No. 17-10510-TPA
Debtor : Chapter 13
: Related to Claim No. 6

ORDER

On April 9, 2018, a Notice of Postpetition Mortgage Fees, Expenses, and Charges, Official Form 410S2, was filed in this case by MTGLQ Investors, LP, regarding Claim No. 6 (“Notice”). The Court has determined that the Notice does not have sufficient supporting material to meet the minimum standards of Fed.R.Bankr.P. 3002.1(d) and therefore it must be supplemented or it will be dismissed.

In order to meet the minimum standard expected of a Notice pursuant to Rule 3002.1(d), and to protect debtors from potential overreaching or unreasonable claims for attorney fees and other expenses [see generally, Elmer and Teresa Reitz, Case No. 17-10696-TPA, January 3, 2018 Order to Show Cause (Doc. No. 40) and January 30, 2018 Order (Doc. No. 45.)], the Court has determined that a Party filing such a Notice must make every reasonable effort to include all of the following with the Notice:

- (a) A computation of the mortgage fees, expenses, and charges.
- (b) A complete and accurate loan payment history.
- (c) Where attorney, or other professional fees are sought, a description of the services that were provided and the fees charged for those services in a form consistent with W Pa LBR 2016-1.
- (d) For all other expenses, a payment receipt or other similar documentation supporting the expenditure.
- (e) After exercising the appropriate due diligence in complying with the foregoing, in the event any of the foregoing cannot be produced, an identification of the reasons for non-production, along with a detailed statement explaining the efforts made in attempting to do so.
- (f) A Declaration affirming the veracity and accuracy of the foregoing.

AND NOW, this 10th day of April, 2018, in light of the above considerations, a review of the Notice filed in this case indicates deficiencies in one or more respects, therefore, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that: (1) on or before May 1, 2018, the Party filing the Notices shall supplement them to comply with the above requirements or it will be DISMISSED without further notice or hearing; and, (2) the 21-day period provided in W.P.A.LBR 3002-2(b) for the Debtor(s) to respond is STAYED but will commence to run on the filing of the supplement.
